

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).

"Two Wrong Questions; One Right Answer"

Matthew 18

1. Humility is the measure of your importance in the Kingdom.
 - A. The first wrong question. Who's the boss? (1).
 - B. Only the humble need apply. (3).
 - C. Relative rank in the Kingdom depends on humility. (4).

2. Humility is measured by your openness and sensitivity to so-called "inferiors".
 - A. Receiving the least means receiving the King. (5).

3. Humility is measured by your concern over your personal sin and how it effects others.
 - A. The one who causes stumbling is better off dead. (6).
 - B. The world does not need a stockpile of Christian stumbling blocks. (7).
 - C. No sacrifice is too great. (8, 9)
 - D. To teach another to sin is the worst sin of all.

4. Humility toward the weak is measured in heaven.
 - A. Guardian angels have God's instant, unannounced, undivided attention. (10).
 - B. Little lost sheep are the reason for the cross. (11-14).

5. Humility and sensitivity toward others is measured by your concern over their sins.
 - A. Are you concerned enough to go to them in private? (15).
 - B. Are you concerned enough to take several of their friends to them? (16).
 - C. Are you concerned enough to take them before the Church? (17).

6. Humility and sensitivity to others is measured by your readiness to forgive and show mercy.
 - A. The second wrong question. Am I always the only one right? (21).
 - B. Sin is a crime and an unpayable indebtedness; compassion and mercy are our only chance for forgiveness. (22-27).
 - C. Severe unreasonableness to sinners brings the wrath of God upon us. (28-35).